FAREWELL FROM FR. ED

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

As Fr. Rene, our Paulist president has stated, after 66 years of our Paulist ministry here at the St. Thomas More Newman Center Bishop Fernandes has informed us that he no longer wants the Paulists to be in charge of the ministry here. As of July 12, Fr. Adam Strietenberger will be making all of the decisions for ministry at the Newman Center. Our last Sunday that we will preside at Mass here at the Newman Center will be on July 31. Watch for details about our final Sunday as our farewell Mass time might change. Our Paulist president, Fr. Rene Constanza will be present for these final Masses and we are looking at having a farewell reception on July 31.

This is a terrible shock to all of us. We have truly been a spiritual family to each other and this moment of loss and grief feels like losing beloved family members. Even so, though it is not the same as being together with each other every Sunday, as long as we live we still have each other to lean on and we have our faith in God's ultimate care for us.

I am forever grateful for all of the support you have given to our ministry here over the 66 years we have faithfully served at the Newman Center. I thank you too for all of the support you have given to me personally as well as my brother Paulists. I certainly will miss being your priest but will keep you in my prayers. I trust you will do the same for me and my brother Paulists.

In peace, Fr. Ed Nowak

COLUMBUS CENTER DEDICATED

St. Thomas More Center, Columbus

The rains came but made little difference to the thousand plus students who attended the official liturgical blessing of the St. Thomas More Center at Ohio State, on Oct. 24. The new center, located on Lane Avenue in Columbus, is at the Northeast corner of the campus. The poured - concrete building was opened in June, but its dedication was tied into homecoming week at Ohio State. Bishop Clarence Elwell presided at the Liturgy and blessing of the new half million dollar building, and also officiated at the official dedication at which Governor John Gilligan was the featured speaker.
